

End Stage 2 English – Narrative – Grade C

The eye of the animal

100 years ago in ancient Egypt there was a mystic treasure called "the eye of the animal", whenever it was found by a human the treasure blinds the person.

One day an archaeologist called Kenshi found an Egyptian temple that had a picture of an eye he quietly went in in case something was alive.

There were Egyptian inscriptions all over the walls, then he tripped over a rock and in front of him was the eye of the animal. Kenshi picked it up and said "What's this". A big light shone over his eyes and blinded him, he fell down a hole, he found a bandana and a sword, he put the bandana over his eyes and picked up the sword and strapped it to his belt then he heard rocks fall and he could because of the noise he saw the gold again and picked it up and put it in his pocket. He heard a giant footstep, it came closer and closer then he saw a monster he took out the and fought and fought it then he had an idea he took the gold out of his pocket and destroyed it then the monster melted and Kenshi decided to live in the cave and he ate the giant monster for the amount of time he lived in it. The end

Adequate level of competence in the processes and skills of writing a narrative text

Descriptive language used

Grade Commentary

Taylor demonstrates a sound knowledge and understanding of the main areas of a narrative and an adequate level of competence in the processes and skills of writing a narrative text. Taylor has used descriptive language to aid plot development. Spelling is mostly accurate and editing skills are adequate, but there is a lack of paragraphing.

Taylor's response demonstrates characteristics of work typically produced by a student performing at a grade C standard.